...sing demand for exclusive and original luxury goods in China. Prestigious decorative lighting is fast growing in China, a country to become in a short time the biggest market in the world. Beijing show-room, undoubtedly unique in its kind, is in fact a triumph of classical products. Different luxury and prestigious styles masterfully blend in an elegant and finely furnished ambience thanks to frescoes, fine furniture and curtains of another epoch, as one can deduce from the name of the shop - SINCE... And again, panels for brand, sober and elegant individuals - one for each manufacturer - advertised through various media and social networks, the support of local government authorities. Via
